Re: Arizona Utility Supply & Services, Inc. – Amended Application to transfer a portion of the Certificate of Convenience and Necessity (CC&N) Docket SW-04002A-02-0837 and WS-02987A-03-0837

Dear Mr. Lee,

In reference to the Arizona Utility Supply & Services, Inc. Amended Application to transfer a portion of its Certificate of Convenience and Necessity, dated August 27, 2003, this letter is to inform you that the application has not met the sufficiency requirements as outlined in Arizona Administrative Code.

In order to provide Staff with the proper evidence from which to base a recommendation on the above described Application, please respond to the following requests for information.

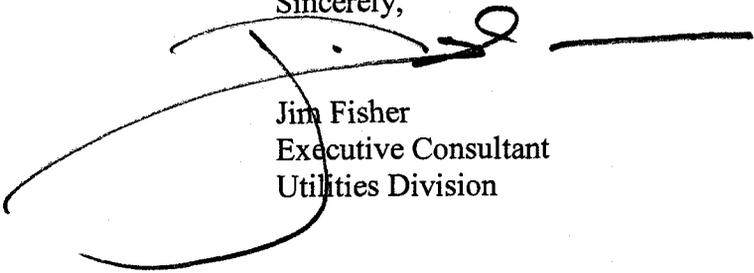

1. Please provide documentation that demonstrates the proposed transfer meets the requirements of the Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (“ADEQ”).
2. Please provide documentation that demonstrates both Applicants are in compliance with the ADEQ.
3. Please provide documentation that demonstrates both Applicants are in compliance with Arizona Corporation Commission requirements.

Per Arizona Administrative Code upon meeting sufficiency requirements, the Commission has 150 calendar days for its substantive review. This includes conducting a hearing and preparing a proposed Opinion and Order to present to the Commission at an Open Meeting.
